Hang in there, guys! We are almost at the finish line... for this semester at least. Don't stress over class work too much! Make lists, use post-it notes, set reminders, take naps, watch Netflix, procrastinate. Do whatever it'll take to get through the most stressful 2 weeks of the semester. We are all this man in the pool. Just tread water, best as you can.

The best piece of advice I can give, that was passed down to me, is "Do not stress. Everything will get done. Why? Because there is no other option." All that is waiting is a month of sheer happiness!
