

Geriatric Nurse Aide TRAINING PROGRAM

*Looking to start your career in healthcare?
Want to make a difference in people's lives?*

BEGINNING IN SPRING, 2010

Marywood University introduces its new Geriatric Nurse Aide training program.

Program Review:

Our 120 hour program includes interactive classroom and laboratory instruction with hands-on training in state approved clinical sites!

Students successfully completing the program will be eligible to take the American Red Cross Nurse Aide Competency Examination.

Curriculum Overview:

Skills learned will include but not limited to:

- Basic nursing skills
- Communication skills
- Infection control
- Resident's rights
- Nutrition
- Death & dying
- Resident's safety

Career Opportunities:

Healthcare workers, especially Nurse Aides, are currently in high demand. In fact, the demand for Nurse Aide professionals is expected to grow 20% by the year 2018.* Career opportunities exist in hospitals, nursing homes, hospice care, home health agencies and many more.

* Statistics reported by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, www.bls.gov
