Office of Academic Success

The Office of Academic Success serves as a guiding beacon throughout the academic journey, supporting students from their freshman year to graduation. In the pursuit of academic excellence, Marywood University recognizes the importance of supporting students not just academically, but holistically. The Office of Academic Success is dedicated to helping students successfully navigate various barriers that they may encounter on their academic journey.

- Organization and Study Skills
- Managing Test Anxiety and Improving Test-Taking Strategies
- Supporting Academic Concerns
- Goal Setting and Planning
- Major Exploration and College Adjustment
- Addressing Personal Difficulties
- Self-Advocacy

Academic Advising

- Every student will be assigned an academic advisor in their program and meet with their advisor at least once a semester to review current progress and register for classes
- Review the curriculum guide of courses you have already taken and transferred in
- Draw up a tentative schedule of classes for the semester
- Review the Marywood University catalog, specifically prerequisites and course descriptions
- Students are expected to be familiar with academic policies and procedures, graduation requirements, and course restrictions as printed in the Undergraduate Catalog
