

Outcomes Assessment Committee

Purpose & Function

The Outcomes Assessment Committee serves as the campus coordinating body for outcomes assessment activities with oversight responsibility for the outcomes assessment plan.

The committee's recommendations to the Provost are based on concurrence of committee members, consistency with the outcomes assessment plan, and available budget for assessment activities.

The Outcomes Assessment Committee will:

- Assist departments and academic and support programs to develop and improve plans for assessment.
- Collect and review assessment reports from departments and academic and support programs and provide feedback.
- Prepare an annual report for the President's Council that includes a summary of assessment activities conducted throughout the university.
- Make recommendations to the Provost and/or appropriate Vice President concerning outcomes assessment and effective integration/linkage of outcomes assessment with strategic planning, budgeting, and resource allocation.
- Communicate broadly the University's assessment program – its goals, accomplishments, and use of results for enhancement of learning and institutional improvement.
- In consultation with the Center for the Transformation of Teaching and Learning, provide support, workshops, and consultation with faculty and program leaders regarding learning outcomes assessment.

The Office of Planning and Institutional Effectiveness will continue to support each academic and administrative unit's efforts to develop and evaluate outcomes and to disseminate results of institutional assessments, such as the National Survey of Student Engagement, the HERI Freshman Survey, the HERI Senior Survey, and the Ruffalo Noel-Levitz Student Satisfaction Inventory.
